Paula – I'm glad it's helped! I don't know much about Sharepoint, but thought it would be good for folks to exchange info quickly. I'm interested to see how it's working out.

You can add folks to the site – just click on members (on the left), and then 'new'. I've been adding everyone as a site owner, because I don't know who needs to make changes to the site structure.

I'm out tomorrow at an off site training, but will be in on Wed.

Thanks!

Jennifer

Thank you Jennifer! This has been extremely useful. Am I able to add people, so we don't have to bug you all the time? (and forgive me if I asked this question before)
